Dearest George -

Your nice letter - need more a musing one too - reached me safely here - Pom writes me up just a week ago - and you can't imagine what this visit and the Maine air have done to me - I've really got some pep again - after feeling pretty punk at the Lake - We all went to this altar-ive little Church last Sunday. Pom left on Monday, for which we were sorry - to go to Camden Rosie's island - I am staying on Sunday & will take the train to N.Y. the 31st If you are in N.Y. will you have dinner with me the eve. 1 Aug. first - somewhere - I'll buy for Nickie, too. On the 2nd I go off on the Laurentian to Whitehall - Much love in which all join - Isn't the view lovely from the Parrs house - Devotedly yours. Belsie
